PLEASURE IN READING

Baby's LOVE books!

Even babies love to be read aloud. Preferably together with mom or dad.

It is a cosy moment together with your child. Discovering a book with your baby on your lap is not only cosy but also good for language development. Your child will enjoy this for a lifetime. But how do you do that, reading aloud to a baby?

Join our meetings in the Witte Dame with your baby and borrow baby books afterwards.

The meetings are free. Just sign up. More information and times can be found here.

MEDIA LITERACY

Media Ukkie Dagen 2023

During the 'Media Ukkie Dagen' (March 24 to 31) attention will be drawn to media literacy in the education of children aged 0 to 6. We all want children to grow up healthy with media. Here, the balance between media use and other activities is very important. And between sitting still and being active.

On March 28, from 8 p.m. to 9 p.m., there will be a national Webinar hosted by MediaSmarties. More information can be found through this registration link <https://www.mediasmarties.nl/mediaukkie dagen/>

In addition, at our location De Witte Dame we are also paying attention to the 'Media Ukkie Dagen'. Follow the QR code scavenger hunt, bring a coloring page to life with Quiver or discover the possibilities of our robot snail Qobo!

On Sunday, March 26 between 2 p.m. and 4 p.m. you can learn about these resources at our Youth Department.

TIP VAN DE BIBLIOTHEEK

International children's book collection

In the children's section at De Witte Dame, you will find children's books in other languages in addition to Dutch-language children's books. Next to English books, we now have Bulgarian, Chinese, French, Italian, Ukrainian, Persian, Polish, Korean, Spanish and Romanian children's books.

Take a look! With your free youth subscription, all books from the International Children's Book Collection are available to borrow. The International Children's Book Collection was created in partnership with The Reading Pier and the Heritage Language Education Network.
