

The registration rules in a row

You can book a maximum of 7 training sessions per week. For the fitness you can reserve a maximum of 1 time slot at a time. If you want to train longer, ask the trainer 15 minutes before the end of the time slot if there is space available.

Cancel your training in time. This can be done 4 hours before your training via the Sportivity App, less than 4 hours before your training you can only cancel your training by telephone. Cancel your training in time. This gives other members the opportunity to make a reservation.

You can enter 7 minutes before your workout, so don't come early. Still a little too early; then wait outside!

The general rules in a row

You disinfect your hands upon entering.

Register upon entry by logging into the turnstile with your pass.

Inside you follow the walking directions.

Keep 1.5 m distance from others, as much as possible.

Towel is mandatory during all workouts.

After using material and/or device, clean everything yourself before going to the next.

When using the toilet, you can clean the toilet before and after use.

With health complaints (coughing, sneezing, throat complaints, fever) you stay at home!

If everyone adheres to the above rules, we will ensure that we can continue to exercise in a safe environment. We thank you for your cooperation!
